The Realty Auction Market.

There was a noticeable falling off in business in the Vesey street exchange last week, fewer properties being disposed of than during any other week this month. Of the six parcels that made up the schedule three were sold. The most valuable was a twelve story loft building at $2 Fourth street, which was knocked down for $100,000. At the Bronx exchange on Monday George W. Bard conducted a voluntary sale of vacant lots on White Plains, Bartholdi, Cedar and Magenta avenues. The lots, with the exception of those withdrawn, were bought by J. A. Stevenson and Herman Abrecht at an average of about $3,125 a lot. The sale of 13t building sites at Edgemere, L. I., by R. E. Simon of L. J. Phillips & Co. on Saturday was attended by more than three hundred people. The bidding was lively, and within balf an hour every lot put up was sold.

This week there will be only four offerings, all in Manhattan, in the lower part of the borough. Joseph P. Day will start the week at the Vesey street rooms on Monday by offering the four story and basement brownstone building at No. 10 East Forty-seventh street, how occupied by the Nathan Hale School. On the same day he will sell the northwest corner of South and Roosevelt. On Thursday Mr. Day will close the week by offering in foreclosure proceedings No. 68 West Sixtyninth street, a feur story and basement brownstone front dwelling, 120 feet east of Columbus avenue.

On Labor Day Auctioneer Harry E. Colwell will put up at public auction for the Sound Shore Realty and Title Company eighty-two building leis at New Roohelle. The lots adjoin the Boston post road and one the station of the subway extension. The Realty Auction Market.
